THE TRUE SITUATION.

Some of our Democratic exchanges affect to be deeply concerned as to the welfare of the country, and every week tell their readers and pretended to believe it themselves, that the country under Republican rule is fast going to the dogs. They are worried about political assessments, about pensioning the soldiers, and term nearly every appropriation made by Congress as a job—a willful waste of the public funds, and claim that if there was a change of administration, and political power generally, things would be different and better. Their position is not tenable. The Democracy has been tried, and in the last days of its powers, and in its dying struggle, after a long life of uninterrupted peacemaking, jobbery, squandering of the public money, and waste and destruction of the public property, it attempted to steal the entire Government—an attempt that would have succeeded save for the intervention of the soldier boys of both parties. The Democracy, of course, does not like to see soldiers pensioned, does not like to see any expenditures of any kind made by which the Democracy are not the immediate beneficiary. Every dollar going to the pocket of a Republican, they deem as a wasted dollar. Every appointment of a Republican that is made in their estimation, is one that must result in evil to the Government. They suggest the remedy of Democracy—a medicine that the people will never take—as it is productive of no results but nausea, and has ever marred and never mended. The country is all right. There are untold millions in the Treasury, placed there indirectly by the action of the volunteers. They are entitled to some of it—a fair proportion. Political assessments have always been in fashion. They always will be. With the Democrats in power there would be no change in this respect and nobody would care whether there was or wasn't. It is a matter in which only the appointees and his influence are concerned. All battles must be fought with the saws of war. It is the duty of all loyal party men to help furnish them whether in or out of office. The Democracy of course will join the cry of a few fanatical Republicans, that this state of affairs is all wrong, and will do what they can to cripple the party in power. But the party can stand untold measures of abuse, and rise triumphant above it all. The country is in a broad sea of prosperity—exhaustless in resource, fabulous in wealth, mighty in numbers, and grand and towering in its strength. It is the result of long years of Republican rule, and so long as the party of the right is at the helm in the general Government, in State, in county, so long will prosperity be its handmaiden, and all the people shall rejoice.

The following are the Republican delegates elected from Storey: R. M. Ballard, W. J. Roberts, W. McKeegan, J. S. McCullough, J. B. Eckman, P. T. Kirby, A. J. Peasley, H. Rolfe, W. M. N. Johnson, J. Minor Taylor, Dan Fraser, G. F. Hill, J. M. Pomeroy, L. P. Wordle, John Hanna, J. S. Worrin, J. C. Murray, C. Zeigler, Theo Lamb, Reese, Lermo, Bennetts, Washburne, Likins and Tom Hally.

The new opera house in Frankfort-on-the-Maine illustrates the manner in which electricity now enters into the conveniences of daily life. It serves as a fire alarm, a door closer, a heat indicator, a lift measurer for the ventilator, a general illuminator and a time beator for the orchestra.

M. D. Foley, W. W. Hobart, J. J. Kermee, C. J. R. Battlar, John Torre, E. Davidson, John Godfrey, W. J. Penrose, Mose Lyons and Philip Benett are the Eureka county delegates to the Republican State Convention.

One of the Southern Pacific engineers in making his run in the neighborhood of the San Fernando Tunnel, came into a herd of twelve deer.

D. A. Bender, S. T. Swift, Frank Boskowitz, W. D. Torreyson and S. C. Wright are the Republican delegates from Carson.

D. C. McKenny, Henry Walsh and F. Von Nordeck are the Republican delegates from Austin.

Hon. W. W. Bishop, of Eureka, is said to be a candidate for Supreme Judge.

James Clark is a Republican delegate from Elko.

General Evans was in town last Monday springing out the land. The General made very good impression on the boys and he will be warmly supported if he gets the nomination.—Lyon Co. Times, 19th.

Railroad Engineer Killed.

Last Saturday morning as the "mule's relief," the motor of the Austin street railway, was ascending the grade between Austin and the Nevada Central railroad depot at Clifton, the steam brakes broke while on a steep grade, and the engine became unmanageable, and, as it was turning a curve, fell over, burying Andy Wright, the engineer, under the wreck, killing him instantly, and mangle his body in a terrible manner. Mr. Wright was highly respected in the town, and was noted for his bravery and coolness, always standing at his post in face of every danger. He leaves a wife and two children in Frank Duffy, to jump off, which the latter did, escaping with very little injury. A general feeling of mourning has overtaken the town in consequence of this sad accident.

Sequel to the Wintermantel Robbery.

On last Sunday morning after the burglary of Wintermantel's premises and the fine picnic by the jokers who went through the saloon, the police, being notified, kept a sharp lookout for the parties carrying too much of the flowing bowl, and succeeded in nabbing two individuals, the only ones found drunk in town. One of the parties apprehended was a stout young man named Stunkle. He claimed to have been a partner of the dead man who was thrown from a wagon and killed some time since on the Long Valley road. He was closely questioned both by the officers and in court yesterday, when, as there was no one's evidence to convict him, he was given till ten o'clock this morning to appear for sentence on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, to which he pleaded guilty. His companion, a little Jew calling himself a doctor, was overhauled Sunday morning by Capt. Byrnes, and searched, without anything suspicious being found on him. He acted in such a curious manner on the night of the robbery as to warrant suspicion falling upon him. It seems that while Mr. Wintermantel was out, he, a total stranger in the place, carried a valise into the saloon, and walking behind the counter placed it in a corner, and all through the evening he sat in or around the saloon. On the morning following, after the robbery, he claimed to have lost from the valise a fine case of surgical instruments worth eighty dollars. Shortly after being searched by the watchman he skipped off on the cars eastward. The officers believe that the valise was put behind the counter solely for the purpose of gaining points on the place. It will need a tramp or two to be slung up at the end of a rope before the fraternity will learn to leave Reno alone.

Counsellor Polk was fined $20 for contempt of court at Winterset, Iowa, the alternative being twenty days' imprisonment. He had no money, and his fellow members of the bar raised the amount. "My gratitude is boundless, dear friends," said he. "I haven't had twenty dollars in my pocket before for twenty years. I shall keep it there, with your kind permission," and he went joyfully to jail.

Judge Sabin has gone to the Bay, where he will remain until the first of next month.

Emmit Jones, who left Reno about three years ago, and has been residing at Salt Lake, has returned.

Gov. Kinkaid and Secretary of State Babcock came down from the Capital last night en route to Austin.

Charley Courtois has taken a partner in planing mill business and will at once enlarge the capacity of the mill.

Jas. E. Townsend, the champion, came in from Lundy last night, to resume his labors on the Gazette.

Hon. Judge Moore, of Ottawa, Ohio, was in town Friday, the guest of Gen. Evans. He went East yesterday morning.

Miss Lotta Thompson, of Paradise Valley, will return to Mount St. Mary's Academy this term, to remain until she graduates.

R. L. Dabean, of Carson, and a former officer there, passed through to that place last Saturday, on his way from Montana.

F. A. Fallmore, a prominent mine owner in the Patterson District near the line of the C. & O. R. R., is stopping at the Lake House.

John McDonough, agent for Polhemus & Co., of San Francisco, is at the Lake House and will remain a short time in Reno on business.

Billy Illidge and Hank Rhodes are preparing to open out the "Democratic Headquarters," at the Theater Saloon next to Hammond and Wilson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Black, who have figured somewhat prominently here for strangers during the past few weeks, are now residents of the County Hospital.

Mr. H. Griffen and wife stopped over at the Arcade Sunday night on a honeymoon tour. The estimable lady is one of the tallest visiting Reno for some time.

Mercer Otey, of Virginia, left for Lake Tahoe last Friday evening. As Mercer is a prominent fisherman and sportsman the fish dealers around the lake are hereby cautioned.

Constable W. J. Penrose, of Ruby Hill, came in from the Base Range last night with the little Eustice boy, whom he was taking to the Orphan's Home. Mr. Penrose is a delegate to the State Convention and will remain in these parts until after the 4th.

Dr. G. A. Tucker an expert on insanity went through the entire Asylum in company with Dr. Dawson last Friday and expressed himself as highly pleased with everything he saw and especially with the manner in which the institution was conducted. The Doctor left for the East on Saturday morning's train, having only sojourned in Reno after a pleasure trip to Lake Tahoe.

The Court House Fence.

The fine new iron fence to be put in position in front of the Court House has arrived, and is lying in wait in front of the building; until the County Commissioners decide whether to insert the fence in a stone basing or not, the fence will probably lie in its present recumbent position; instead of being erected, and made an ornament to the Court House.

Lots of Skeletons.

The cutting out of a new channel on the South side of the river above the dam has uncovered another skeleton; at least the skull and a part of the vertebral. It is supposed to be the remains of an ancient Indian who departed this life many years ago without a tombstone to remember him.

The Boynton Case.

Mrs. Boynton was arraigned before Justice Young Saturday morning and was held in bonds of $2,000 to appear before the Grand Jury. As she failed to get that amount of surety, she is at present in the county jail.

THE MYSTERIOUS SKELETON.

The Jar and Its Contents as Mysteriously Disappear.

The JOURNAL's report of the mysterious bones found lately in a jar some distance above the swimming grounds has occasioned considerable comment. Undertaker Sanders is of the opinion that it is a stray Chinaman whose bones the angel wings of the Six Companies will never transport back to China, and all on account of the late Chinese prohibition act. Mr. Bechtel, book-keeper for Nasby, believes that the remains are a relic of the early immigration days, and were deposited near the banks of the river by the old time travelers, who, it is well known, used to delight in carrying to the Pacific Coast across the plains China tea jars and Mexican ojas, together with lots of other burdensome and often useless articles, under the impression that they would be necessary and useful. Geo. Avery advanced the most plausible opinion. About two years ago there was a Chinese leper lying sick in a cabin a little ways back of the calaboose. One night the old patient disappeared and no trace of him has ever been discovered. The bones in the jar are believed by Mr. Avery to be those of the missing Chinaman, and the fact of their deposition outside of the regular place of Chinese burial seems to add proof to the theory.

Last night two embryo doctors, medical students in town, interviewed and closely questioned the Constable, and after ascertaining the exact location of the jar, started out on an expedition. Before many days a highly ornamental skeleton will probably decorate the rooms of some one of Reno's M. D.'s. The only question to be raised in the matter is this: Suppose the defunct died of leprosy; wouldn't his cadaverous hinges be a great deal better off in the jar—at least for the community?

Quick-sawdust Instead of Quick-sands.

The item the other day in the JOURNAL about the existence of quicksands in the Truckee banks astonished many; but with a slight correction it is entirely true. The scientific explanation advanced by the JOURNAL was entirely correct, provided nothing came down the Truckee River but silt and sand quartz. But unfortunately a great amount of sawdust from heavy green timber is carried down. The specific gravity of these particles is augmented by their immersion in the river water (especially as Lake Tahoe and Truckee water is of exceptionally light gravity compared with other waters). As a result, the sawdust is carried along toward the bottom of the river until it finally settles in a deep hole, where it mingles with mud and gravel in an incongruous mixture. The hole is finally filled up, apparently solid, when all of a sudden some unfortunate disappears, engulfed in the pit. These pitfalls are rather to be classed sawdust pits than quicksands though one will go over his head just as quick in one of the former as the latter. The current, too, acting in some special spots in the river, tends to make holes, which are soon filled up with this sawdust, sand and silt debris.

A State Prison Escape.

Jim Mateer, one of the guards of the State Prison, and a noted Sheriff of White Pine county, was in town yesterday and stopping at the Pollard House. He is in hot search of an escaped convict who took French leave of the prison. As Jim was in pursuit, the only fact that could be learned was that while the line of convicts were passing by the guard-room one of them slipped quietly in, and doffing his prison garb, put on a genteel suit of clothes, and was enabled to make his exit, the humane guard taking him for a prospective Governor in disguise. Mr. Mateer is in close pursuit of him, however.

The Coats House.

One of the finest stopping places in Reno is the Coats Tavern, kept by that old veteran hotel keeper, M. T. Coats. It is a solid brick building, all hard finished throughout, and all lovers of a good night's rest especially in this close warm weather will appreciate the blessing of having a room in such a building. Everything is as clean and neat as a pin and the table is a marvel of cookery. The kitchen is under the especial supervision of Mrs. Coats and that the guests are elegantly served admits of no question. Try the old Tavernist and if he doesn't do the square up thing with you then call all mankind prevaricators.

Screw Her Up.

The county bridge across the Truckee at the Lake House appears to be sagging a little in the centre and the attention of Smith is called to it. Right near the middle suspender the platform of the bridge has sunk quite perceptibly. The bridge generally needs a little screwing up.

A New Departure.

Wm. Gale, proprietor of the barber shop on Virginia street, adjoining Hall & Painter's grocery store, has embarked a new adventure and is running a neat two bit delivery wagon. All orders will be promptly filled by Billy.

COMPLIMENTARY.

Resolutions Adopted at the Ring Reception Meeting.

WHEREAS, The Trustees of the Reno Public School have seen fit to remove our honored and respected Principal, Orvis Ring, from a position long and faithfully filled. Therefore be it

Resolved, That while frankly submitting to the authority of the Trustees we greatly regret the loss of so worthy and efficient a teacher.

Resolved, That during Mr. Ring's twelve years' residence among us we have ever found him a trustworthy friend, an efficient educator and a man of thorough integrity and honor.

Resolved, That in the retirement of Mr. Ring, the public have lost the services of a man whose life thus far has been devoted to educational work, whose deepest interest is in the proper moral and intellectual training of the young and whose heart and mind are entirely absorbed in his important profession.

Resolved, That we offer our earnest regards for the future welfare of our late Principal and that in his new field of labor, wherever it may be, he will carry with him our sincere and earnest wishes for his future success and happiness.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to Mr. Ring with our warm regards and that a copy of the same be published in the NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Reno Gazette.

Signed: J. A. SANDS, Committee.

The Foot Races—Gala Day.

Last Sunday afternoon was a festive day among the lovers of foot racing. For some time prior the fact had been published that Billy Jones would quietly run a foot race against Seymour Bryant for a purse of fifty dollars. Yet instead of one race there must have been twenty.

THE FIRST FOOT RACE.

Took place on Evans' field near the Catholic Church and was largely attended. After arranging the preliminaries Frank Borden and Mr. Tannehill were chosen judges, Matt Reihm, referee, and Mr. Lindley starter. The race was run by both men in bare feet and started in fine style, Bryant coming in winner a distance of a foot and a half. Both contestants shot out like birds, but unfortunately, Jones made a half stumble which set him completely behind, and as his friends claim, caused him to lose the race.

A free for all purse of five dollars was next made up by the spectators. Eight men entered, but Gordon Rice succeeded in carrying away the coin. The main body of the racers and lookers-on then adjourned but somehow or other managed to next locate in front of the Lake House where the sport was continued nearly the entire afternoon.

FIFTEEN FEET START.

The first race for a purse of five dollars in front of the Lake House was between Rice and Phillips, the former giving fifteen feet of a start to his opponent and winning nevertheless by eighteen inches, Messrs. Parker and Knox being the judges.

THE POOL RACE.

The next was a pool race on which over sixty dollars worth of pools were sold, and it was exceedingly lively, the stoop of the Lake House for a time resembling a Stock Exchange. This race was between Phillips, Dunham and Stewart, and was won by Phillips, who from the first was sold the favorite in the pools against large odds.

RACING ALL AFTERNOON.

Was kept up and the stretch of street from the bridge to the Court House for the balance of the day couldn't be seen for dust. Plenty of corn was put up but alphabetical know was invariably the biggest winner of it.

Sowing Wild Oats.

J. O. Sessions, a farmer down the meadows has presented B. F. Small, of the Arcade, with a couple of samples of oats and wheat, grown on his land, which he intends to enter among the exhibits of the coming State Fair. One of them is a sample of hollowless oats, about three or three and a half feet long, the bunches of which average from sixteen to twenty-one stalks, from the single seed. Mr. Sessions sent East last winter for an ounce of the seed, which he planted and he raised two pounds of seed from the trial, or a hundred and sixty per cent. of increase. The specimens can be seen at Mr. Small's.

Chinese Offenders.

See Wah and Mun Lee, two Mongolians, were arrested yesterday by the Constable for committing a nuisance by running slops into the Sullivan ditch. They appeared before Justice Young, and pleading guilty, were fined seven dollars and a half apiece, which they paid and were released from the clutches of the law.

No Grand Jury Yet.

It was not so, as the Times stated yesterday, that Judge King had called a Grand Jury. Nothing will be done until to-day or perhaps to-morrow towards selecting the names of the coming Grand Jurors.

BREVITIES.

Everybody talks of going to the Sunday School picnic at Steamboat to-morrow.

There are nine prisoners in the county jail. Five of them are cases for the Grand Jury.

As yet no clue has been obtained to the parties who burglarized Winterman's saloon Friday night.

Donner Lake is lower at the present time than it has been known for years. Not a particle of water now flows out at the outlet.

Last Saturday afternoon a convict sentenced for two years made his escape from the State Prison. He was employed as a trusty.

It is said that the Belcher assessment of $28,000 just levied is for the purpose of paying an indebtedness of $11,000 to the Sutro Tunnel Company.

H. M. Frost, Dr. S. Bishop, A. Lindley, M. J. Smith, J. L. McFarlin, M. Nathan, Geo. Gregg and W. E. Price are the Republican delegates from Washoe.

It is reported that after the return of Superintendent Patton, of the northeast mines, some time in September, John W. Mackay will go to Colorado, and will spend about two weeks at the Denver Exposition.

Circumstances may require us to give up many of the luxuries, and even the comforts, to which we have been accustomed; but there can be no excuse for not providing ourselves with a good No. 2, B Flat Cornet with box, which can be bought for $12 of Uncle Harris, 221 Kearney St. San Francisco. Send for it.

The Democrats held a meeting at Reform Club Hall Saturday night for the purpose of forming a campaign club. The meeting decided upon the names of twenty persons from which the voters are to select six delegates to the State Convention. A committee was appointed on permanent organization, after which the meeting adjourned for two weeks.

The Two Governors.

Matt Canavan, Democratic aspirant for Governor, passed eastward last Sunday evening, and Jewett W. Adams, a counter aspirant, went along also. So it looks as though they must have gone along together in order to keep an eye on each other's movements. While they were taking supper Sunday evening at Chamberlain's Governor Canavan detected his vis-a-vis Adams winking at a colored waiter. Thinking he was endeavoring to color a voter, (This joke is reserved), Governor Canavan after a while quietly called the colored waiter aside, and slipping a dollar into his palm, whispered: "Don't pay any attention to that individual across the way. He's a little off his nut." After supper the two Governors travelled backwards, where Mr. Canavan treated the kind waiter to a cigar. Hardly had he lit it before Governor Adams buttonholed the colored gentleman and remarked aside: "You should look out for that suspicious looking individual who has just offered you a cigar. He is capable of poisoning you; I cannot vouch for his reputation—and you know me of course, my boy." Unless the two Governors soon separate there is no telling what might be said between them, unless it be the old gubernatorial remark, "It's a long time between drinks."

A Happy Party.

A number of boys and girls belonging to the class that was under Mr. J. Sand's tuition during the last school year "surprised" that gentleman yesterday afternoon. The children had the jolliest kind of a time, playing all the old and new fashioned games and cutting all sorts of antics. A nice lunch was served after which Helen Sample, on behalf of his pupils, presented Mr. Sands with a fine plain gold ring. The love and best wishes of each and every scholar accompanied the gift.

A Reno Boy in Trouble.

Frank H. Chase, an old Reno boy, and a reporter on one of the daily papers in San Francisco, has fallen afoot of a libel suit brought against him by a Charles McDougall for $20,000. His Reno education and endurance will surely pull him through. Besides, there is no reason why he should be punished for telling the truth—for surely a Renoite, and especially a reporter, can tell nothing but the truth.

District Court.

The contempt of Court case, arising from the trial of P. J. Kelly vs. Jas. Sullivan, occupied the attention of the Court yesterday and is still on trial. The contempt is mixed up with an inflow or the outflow, leakage or evaporation at some point on the English Mill or Sullivan ditch. It is the finest kind of a puzzle.

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, AND CONSUMPTION.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one, but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it yon for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.
